

Working with Children Week

Families and communities are informed and involved

17 - 23 June 2024

Organisations can actively involve families and community members to keep children safe.

- Make policies and procedures accessible to parents, carers and families
- Engage in open, two-way communication with families about child safety approaches
- Keep families and communities informed about the organisation's team and operations